

Who We Are

History

APAI came to life in the early 1970s when a group of international colleagues in the field of parole expressed a strong interest in discussing best practices and current issues surrounding conditional release, reentry into the community and public safety.

Mission

To demonstrate through embracing APAI's established values that the parole process of the criminal justice system is an essential element for making our society a safer, better place to live.

APAI Secretariat:

Ashley Koonce
Correctional Management Institute of Texas
George J. Beto Criminal Justice Center
Sam Houston State University
Huntsville, Texas 77341-2296
936-294-1706
info@apaintl.org

Our Values

-  We believe that the parole process is essential to a fair and just criminal justice system that enhances public safety.
-  We are dedicated to professional development of those involved in the parole process.
-  We are committed to the development, improvement and utilization of consistent and rational parole practices.
-  We believe in the human dignity of all and shall demonstrate this belief to the community, victims and offenders through our practices.
-  We believe in the development of leadership that creates an environment to guide, influence and facilitate best practices.

Association of Paroling Authorities International

Correctional Management Institute of Texas
George J. Beto Criminal Justice Center
Sam Houston State University
Huntsville, Texas 77341-2296

Phone: 877-318-APAI
Fax: 936-294-1671
E-mail: info@apaintl.org

 Sam Houston State University is a member of the Texas University System

Association of Paroling Authorities International

the recognized voice for the highest professional standards of responsible parole practices

877-318-APAI
www.apaintl.org

About Us

Membership

Our membership is comprised of both individuals and organizations. Parole professionals from more than 38 countries have participated in our Annual Conferences, trainings, and audio conferences.

Benefits

Member benefits include networking with colleagues, a blog with up-to-date articles from around the world, listservs, priority access to trainings and education, discounted rates at APAI conferences, forum access, and a quarterly newsletter.

For additional information please visit:

The APAI Website
www.apaintl.org

The APAI Facebook Page
www.facebook.com/apaintl

The APAI Blog
<http://www.apaintl.blogspot.com>

Membership Types

Organizational

All members and staff of boards, commissions, and agencies who are responsible for parole practices as they relate to release decisionmaking, reentry, supervision following release and revocation of release, may be grouped into an organizational membership. Organizational members are entitled to all member benefits, and are eligible to vote, serve on standing or ad hoc committees, and serve on the Executive Committee.

Individual

All members and staff of boards, commissions, and agencies who are responsible for parole practices as they relate to release decisionmaking, reentry, supervision following release and revocation of release, may apply for individual membership. Individual members are entitled to all member benefits, and are eligible to vote, serve on standing or ad hoc committees and serve on the Executive Committee.

Associate

All organizations, academicians, researchers and individuals who have an interest in parole practices as they relate to release decisionmaking, reentry, supervision following release and revocation of release, may apply for Associate Membership. Association members will be entitled to all benefits of the APAI, and may serve on standing or ad hoc committees, however they shall not be eligible to vote or serve on the Executive Committee.

Corporate

All business entities wishing to support the mission of APAI may apply for Corporate Membership, and will be entitled to all benefits of APAI, and may serve on standing or ad hoc committees, however they shall not be eligible to vote or serve on the Executive Committee.

Student

All students who have an interest in parole practices as they relate to release decision-making, reentry, supervision following release and revocation of release, may apply for Student membership. Student members will be entitled to all benefits of APAI, and may serve on standing or ad hoc committees, however they shall not be eligible to vote or serve on the Executive Committee.

Membership Costs

Individual $65

Organizational 8 (to up 8 members) $375

Organizational 13 (9-13 members) $475

Organizational 20 (14-20 members) $575

Organizational 30 (21-30 members) $725

Organizational 40 (31-40 members) $875

Associate $40

Student $15

Costs are on a per year basis.

For more information or to join/renew an APAI membership please visit www.apaintl.org.

If you would like to have a membership with more than 40 members, please contact the APAI Secretariat Ashley Koonce info@apaintl.org or 936-294-1706.